What the Democrata Galard in the October
Micriton—A Bright Prospect for November.
(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)
CLEVELAND, OHIO, October 27.—Ohio will in all probability cast her electoral votes in November for Cleveland and Hendricks.
The probability is based upon facts and figures which cannot be disputed. At the October election, in 1880, the Republican plurality was 19,005. The vote in Ohio on the 14th of this month resulted in a Repubhe 14th of this month resulted in a Repub-can plurality of 11,324, which is a clear Democratic gain of 8,000 votes over the result in October, 1880. A careful review of the vote of each county at the recent election shows that while the Democrats at the recent election carried five counties which the Republicans carried in 1880, the Republicans earried only one county which went Democratic in 1880. This makes a net gain of four counties to the Democracy, which in 1880 carried 36 counties and last October carried 40 of the 88. In the Democratic counties of four years ago the total Republican gain was 1.652, while, on the other hand, of the 25.119 Democratic gain in the State over four years ago, 18,275 gain was made in Republican counties. The greatest Democratic gains were in this county, in which the Republican majority of 1880 was cut down very nearly 5,000 votes.

The next greatest gain was 2,543 in Hismilton county, where the Republicans introduced the shotgun policy, and those are the two counties over which the Republicans have been shouting themselves hoarse. They lost 7,500 votes in the two counties, but they are felicitating themselves upon a tremendous "victory." One more such "victory" would give Ohio to the Democracy.

There will be no chance for the shotgun policy in Hamilton county in November, and from a poil made this week in Cuyahoga county, the Democratic vote here in the Cleveland district will be so largely increased by Republicans and Independents voting against Blaine that in all probabilities the county will be carried by Cleveland and Hendricks. Add to this the increased temperance vote for St. John, which will be very heavy in which the Republicans carried in 1880,

Add to this the increased temperance vote for St. John, which will be very heavy in November, and which will come almost entirely from the Republican party, the chances for Ohio giving a Democratic majority in November are bright indeed.

THE PENSION-OFFICE OUTRAGE. dr. Schurz Showing that No Disproof Ha

The attention of the Hon. Carl Schurz was called yesterday to the letter of Acting-Pension-Commissioner Clark in regard to the abuse of power by the pension agents in Obio to sid the Republicans in the recent election. In answer to the question whether he had read this letter Mr. Schurz whether he had read this letter Mr. Schurz said:

"Yes, I have read the letter. I know Mr. Clark as a very good and conscientious official, and I have not the least doubt that what he says is perfectly correct. But he does not meet any of the charges made against Commissioner Dudley. Dudley is charged with having caused pension clausants to be told, through a number of agents of the Pension Bureau at Washington sentered over States that the Republican party is anxious to carry, that if they and their friends and relatives would vote the Republican ticket their claims should have a preference in being adjusted. Mr. Clark states that the Pension Bureau has received no orders from Mr. Dudley to take any of the claims out of their regular order. This evidently does not meet the charge at all. Mr. Dudley and the agents alleged to have seted under his instructions are charged with having promised to give those claimants ording the Republican ticket preference in the adjusthis instructions are charged with having promised to give those claimants voting the Republican ticket preference in the adjustment of their claims—not with having actually ordered such a thing to be done. I am sure that Mr. Judley has given no such order, and I am equally sure that he never will give it; for if a great many such promises have been made it is quite certain that they cannot and will not be kept. The villainy of this whole business consists in two things—first, in the abuse of official authority which promises the use of official authority which promises the use of official never for party ends, and, second, in fraudulently promising poor pension claimants a thing which cannot be performed for the purpose of influencing their votes, thus bribing them with promises which, as those offering the bribe well knew, cannot be kept. I here the House of Representatives will take the matter in hand next winter to investigate it, call the pension claimants thus appressed as will reserve he forest the Luverle it, call the pension claimants thus approached as witnesses before the Investiout of reach because of his having re-signed, take in hand the agents and clerks of the Pension Bureau who have permit-ted themselves to be used as instruments in this iniquity."

Numerous and Valuable Gifts to the Virginia Historical Society. At the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the Virginia Historical Socie-ty a large number of gifts of books, manuscripts, maps, relies, etc., were reported, smong them the following: From Colonel Thomas Mann Randolph Talcott, Rich-mond, Va., 252 volumes, including many rare and valuable works on heraldry, genemond, Va., 252 volumes, including many rare and valuable works on heraldry, genealogy, history, science, etc., 154 pamphlets, a number of maps (including the "Nine sheet of Virginia," by Herman Boye, 1886), etc., and an original ambrotype of General Robert E. Lee at about the age of fifty years; from Professor Edward Arber, F.
5. A., Birmingham, England, a large paper copy of his valuable reproduction of the "Works of Captain John Smith, 16081631"; from Mrs. A. P. Russell, Richmond, Va., a came made from the material (wood and metal) of the Confederate iron-clad gunboat the Virginia (originally the Merrimac); from E. M.

Fairfax county, Va., October 1, 1736, and John Minor, justice of the same, May 6, 1746.

Communications were read from General Charles B. Norton, secretary of the commission for holding the American Exhibition in London, to commence May 1, 1886, requesting the cooperation of the society, and its being represented by a commission in a meeting of the leading historical and scientife bodies of the United States to be held in London during the exhibition; from John T. Hassam, Esq., Boston, Mass., (representing the New England Historical and Genealogical Society), giving information of the valuable results of the researches of Mr. G. F. Waters among the archives of Great Britain during the past two years, under the auspices of the said society, and transmitting a list of unpublished documents illustrating the early history of Virginis, recently discovered by Mr. Waters. So broad is the field of investigations of Mr. Waters, and so important in their promise to the whole field of American history, and evidently to that of Virginis, that Mr. Hassam thinks it probable that the Legislature of Virginia, or the enlightened of its citizens might be disposed to contribute towards the expense of a further prosecution of the valuable labors of Mr. Waters.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Society: Regular—Audrew H. McClintock, Esq., Wilkesbarre, Pa.; W. Bleddyer, Powell, Esq., Philadelphis, Pa.; Captain Edward M. Heyl, United States army, Governor's Island, New York harbor, N. Y. Honorary—Hon, Jasper W. Gilbert, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Orin L. Cottrell, Esq., was elected a member of the Executive Committee of the Society vice Colonel Thomas H. Ellis, removed from the city and resigned.

Pml.ADELPHIA, October 27.—The stockiders of the International Navigation impusy held a special meeting to-day and netioned and confirmed the contract renity made between the American Steamp Company and the International Naviton Company for the sale by the first

I the purchase by the latter company of the four stramshys Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, and Illinois. The meeting authorized the issue of additional stock to the value of $1,000,000. A hare portion of this stock, it is understood, will pass into the possession of a wealthy sister corporation of Philadelphia. It is believed that the action of to-day's meeting will give a new impetus to the American steamship system. The vessels mentioned will be continued in service and shortly be reinforced by the addition of other new steamers, thoroughly equipping the line that runs between this port and Liverpool. It is, moreover, intended to establish a companion line to run between New York and Liverpool.

The New River Discovered in Alaska.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., October 27.— Lieutenant G. M. Storey was sent by the Navy Department last spring in the schooner Cunalaska to explore an unknown river, discovered by him over a year ago, while at Hotham Inlet, Alaska, after distributing presents from the Government to the Tebouche Indians, as rewards for their services to the crew of the ill-fated Rodgers. A telegram from him has been received at the Navy Department announcing his arrival at San Francisco Saturday last in the Ounalaska. He reports having explored an unknown river at a distance of four hundred miles from its mouth without reaching head-waters. Owing to the lateness of the season and positive orders not to spend the winter there, he was obliged to return without continuing his explorations farther. Lieutenant Storey has forwarded to the Department a written report on his discoveries.

Important Rastroad Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, October 27.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day, the United States Circuit Court to-day, the closing argument was begun in the celebrated Dinsmore suit to take the Jersey Central railroad away from the control of the Reading Railroad Company. Ex-Secretary-of-the-Navy Robeson opened the argument. The members of the court are Judge McKennan of this district, and Judge Nixon of the New Jersey circuit. They decided to allow Mr. Robeson to talk two hours and a half, and divided up three hours and a half between Roscoe Conkling and Clarence Seward.

hours and a half between house considerand Clarence Seward.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Robeson's argument for the Reading Company, Mr. Seward spoke briefly, and Mr. Couking then concluded the argument with a long address in support of the Dinsmore side of the case. The court reserved its design.

Suicide of a Professor.

"its telegraph to the Dispatch.]

Lewisburg, P.A., October 27.—Wm. T.

Grier, professor of the Latin language and literature at the university of this place, committed suicide last night by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been suffering severely from typho-malarial fever for some time, and it was during a paroxysm of delirium that he committed the act. No other cause can be assigned. He leaves a wife and two children. Professor Grier was a man of exceptionally high moral character, and although but thrity-four years of age, had held his late position in the university nearly ten years. He leaves manuscript work on Roman literature that will probably be published.

The Death of Colonel Griffin Halstead. The Beath of Colonel Griffin Halstead.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

CINCINNATI, October 27.—The exact facts concerning the death of Colonel Griffin Halstead, father of Murat Halstead, are as follows: Saturday night Colonel Halstead, who was returning to his home, in Butler county, from New London, passed by a part of a farm where, in making improvements, a narrow ditch had been dug. The dirt had been thrown on the path, and, stumbling on this, he was thrown into the stumbling on this, he was thrown into the ditch and received fatal injury, his neck being broken. AN EFFICIENT REMEDY

A BEFFICIENT RESIDENCE AND ANALY APPECTIONS IS AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. As such it is recognized and prescribed by the medical profession, and in many thousands of families for the past forty years it has been regarded as an invaluable heasehold remedy. It is a preparation that only requires to be taken in very small quantities, and a few dose of it administered in the early stages of a COLD or COUGH will effect a speedy cure, and may, very possibly, save life. There is no doubt wilsteer that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has preserved the lives of great numbers of persons by arresting the development of LARYNGI-TIS BEONCHITIS, PNEUMONIA, and by HILMONARY CONSUMPTION, and by the cure of those daugerous maladies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of CROUP, the alteriation of WHOOPING-COUGH, and the cure of COLDS and INFLUENCE ENZA-affineuts peculiarly including with all diseases of this class is the transcribed and youth. Promption the utmost importance. The loss of a duale day may, in many cuses, entire that consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful effects, while the malady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the species and AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
